LONDON LIBRARY,

ST. JAMES'S SQUARE, S.W. 1.

THE LONDON LIBRARY contains over 400,000 volumes. Standard Works of current literature and older and rarer volumes, in various languages, are added from time to time to the number of over 7000 a year. The collection is thoroughly representative, selected from the literatures of many countries and embracing works on almost every subject. While primarily intended for the supply of serious literature, the Library does not wholly exclude works of fiction. All Members have free access to the shelves.

Fifteen volumes at a time are allowed to Country Members; Ten to residents in London. The annual subscription is four guineas, and there is an entrance fee of three guineas. The composition for life membership varies according to age. For every extra guinea per annum, an additional number of Volumes may be had at the rate of five Volumes at one time of old Works.

Fourteen days are allowed for the perusal of new Books (i.e. Books published within the last twelve months), and one month for Books of older date.

The Reading Rooms, which are open daily from Ten to Six, are furnished with Dictionaries and Encyclopædias, English and Foreign Periodicals, and with the current literary papers.

The Library is closed three days at Easter and three days at Christmas, on Whit-Monday and August Bank Holiday.

Subscribers are admitted on the recommendation of a Member, subject to the approval of the Committee.

C. T. HAGBERG WRIGHT,

Secretary and Librarian.

NOTE

THIS SUPPLEMENT contains all the books added to the Library from the time the last Supplement to the Catalogue was going through the press in 1920 up to the middle of 1928. It includes, among other collections, the Allan Library, consisting of some Incunabula, early Reformation literature, etc.; the late Mr. H. B. Irving's library of criminology, presented by Mrs. Irving; a large number of miscellaneous books bequeathed by the late Miss Hastings and the late Mr. C. Ll. Davies; and Armenian books bequeathed by the late Mr. F. C. Conybeare.

References to books, the main entries of which are included in the Catalogue, 2 vols., 1913-14, or in Supplement 1, 1920, etc., are preceded by †. E.g. Luther (Martin), see †ULENBERG (C.) Gesch., B1, 1836.

† before an alternative heading in square brackets denotes the British Museum form, where it differs from that adopted by the London Library. Many alternative forms already given in the 1913 Catalogue are here omitted.

PLACE OF PUBLICATION.—Much space has been saved by omitting systematically the names of certain places of publication which frequently recur. For example:—

The explanation of other symbols and abbreviations will be found in the main Catalogue, but some of the more common abbreviations, with a few additional ones, are given overleaf.

Several volumes which are described as "wanting" in the Catalogue have been acquired, and therefore it is necessary to consult both the Catalogue and its Supplements. It is the intention of the Committee to continue to complete imperfect sets, and any gift by Members of missing volumes would be welcomed.

The price of this Supplement to Members is £2, 2s. net. To non-members, £3, 10s. net.

The price of Supplement 1 (1913-20) to Members is £1, 1s. net. To non-members, £1, 10s. net.
